BODILY AUTONOMY

Which children deserve
the right to remain whole?
Girls? Boys? Intersex?

All Children

Different bodies. Same rights.

Medically unnecessary, permanent genital modification forced upon children too young to consent is a human rights abuse. The Genital Autonomy Legal Defense and Education Fund assists attorneys in the fight for children's bodily integrity and the freedom to decide for themselves how much of their genitals they get to keep.
